Virgil and Dante meeting Homer, Horace, Ovid, and Lucan in an ethereal gathering of Creative Writers

Creative Writing Club Activities:

- Improve your skills as a writer of both stories and poetry
- Read and discuss non-curricular examples of beautiful writing
- Develop personal projects in a supportive group atmosphere
 - Compose and consume creatively-constructed snacks

With sufficient interest, Creative Writing Club will also work second semester to compile and publish a collection of works (and corresponding artwork) by our students in our annual KEEN Magazine!
